INDUSTRIES

Automotive

We have the eyes on the future - independent from the combustion engine or electric mobility. We are experts in automotive plant engineering.

Conveyor technology

Storage and retrieval system, lifting portals, fully automated high-bay warehouses with driverless transport systems or conveyor systems for incoming and outgoing goods - we do it all!

Ventilation systems

We take on new ventilation plant assemblies and conversions. We gladly develop efficient solutions with you.

Packaging industry

Packaging industry combines special machine construction with elements from the conveyor technology. In this segment, we feel at home, too.

Special machine construction

All plants and machines are different. We grow daily and continuously with our tasks and clients in special machine construction.

Recycling

Waste differs, too. Residual materials are often recoverable materials, which is why waste separation plants and systems steadily gain in importance.

CUSTOMER'S OPINIONS

"Framotec GmbH convinced us with their immense flexibility to respond to requests quickly and to demonstrate high commitment. There is at least one contact person available to us more or less around the clock. This helps us to deploy short-term solutions in the occasional critical situation."

Project lead -
Wolfsburg plant

Uwe H.
Hanover plant

"We liked the regional proximity in particular very much. The branch here in Hanover shortened the official channels and decisions could be made quickly. The expert fitters themselves are very committed and possess top notch technical expertise. We count on Framotec's expert know-how for our assembly peaks."
